Wild Territory

DOCUMENTARY SERIES – 6 X 30’
NATURE

The series takes us to the so-called kingdom of biodiversity in southern Europe, to some of the best-preserved natural paradises, many of which are unknown to the public. These are places where most of the most emblematic species of Iberian and European wildlife live and find refuge today, including some as rare as the Iberian lynx, the brown bear, the imperial eagle, and the wolf. We will closely observe how these animals live day by day, how they interact with each other, and, above all, how they face the harsh challenge of survival.

My Brother Ali

FEATURE DOCUMENTARY — 1 X 85’
SOCIAL

An extraordinary story of friendship over the course of twelve years, in which Spanish filmmaker Paula Palacios has followed Ali, a young man who fled the war in Somalia at the age of fourteen. Their encounter in a Ukrainian prison in 2012 triggers a turning point in Ali’s life. Filmed in Ukraine, USA, Qatar, Saudi Arabia and Spain, often by Ali himself, is a story about personal growth in a hostile world, as Ali, trying to fulfil ‘the American dream’, questions his fate and sets out in search of a new tribe.
